

Hello!

We had previously tried to sell our house a few times, but with no success. We went through a couple of agents trying to do so. Then a friend introduced us to Alec.

Right from the start, we realized we made a right decision. He was very articulate, patient and a professional. During the offers and counter offers, Alec turned out to be not only our agent but also our very good lawyer, by getting us almost 100% of asking price.

We are extremely happy and highly recommend Alec Leung to anyone.

Sincerely,

Ben & Nina Alito
